

Teacher Subject Specialism Training for Modern Foreign Languages

Free modern foreign languages training (secondary) in the West Midlands

Queen Mary's High School is giving you the opportunity to join their Teacher Subject Specialism Training (TSST) course in MFL
(French/Spanish/German) for FREE!!!

This course is for you if you are:

- A non-specialist MFL teacher wishing to upskill
- A MFL teacher returning to teaching after a break
- A specialist MFL not currently teaching MFL who needs a refresher
- A specialist MFL teacher who wants to teach a second language in addition to their specialism
- An overseas trained teacher
 - Minimum requirements of the course:
 - 20 hours minimum – subject-knowledge
 - 10 hours minimum – pedagogy-knowledge
 - 2 hours – observation/co-teaching/teaching

French
German
Spanish

At the end of the TSST programme you will be awarded a Certificate of Recognition.

Workshops delivered by MFL specialists from QMHS as well as guest speakers who are leading experts in the field of MFL teaching.

Want to train to teach French, German or Spanish?

The Course

This specially tailored course will enable you to teach French, Spanish or German confidently at KS3 and KS4. The TSST programme covers three key areas, pedagogy knowledge, subject knowledge and teaching aspect.

Pedagogy-based Knowledge

Enhancing your teaching skills and pedagogy: half-day workshops delivered by MFL specialists from Queen Mary's High School together with guest speakers on a monthly basis covering the following areas:

- New KS3 and KS4 Specifications and the MFL Curriculum
- The use of authentic material in the MFL classroom (films, music, poetry...)
- How to teach grammar, confidently and efficiently
- The use of target language and developing strategies for spontaneous talk in the classroom
- Planning and delivering high quality lessons in MFL
- Workshops delivered by professionals in the field of MFL
- Some cover cost will be available to enable you to attend the workshops

Teaching Aspect

- Face to face support provided by MFL specialists and mentors
- Opportunity to observe lessons, share good practice and co-teach
- Putting ideas into practice in a supportive and relaxed environment
- Constructive feedback and advice given by experienced MFL teachers

Subject-based Knowledge

We work in partnership with Rosetta Stone with regard to the subject-based knowledge of the programme. Rosetta Stone has vast experience of working with schools with regard to the TSST programme.

- Rosetta Stone gives you access to online learning, allowing flexibility in the programme and to fit around your commitments
- You will have access to a range of activities including:
 - lessons
 - computer tutorials
 - games
 - live interactive sessions with a specialist MFL tutor
 - Apple/Android app to learn on the go
- Monitored use of all areas of the programme

What people have said about us

- Informative yet friendly atmosphere
- I came out waiting for the chance to try some of the tips out in my classes.
- Very practical. Lots of brilliant tips which will be easy to implement.
- Lots of practical ideas to use in lessons. Made me realise incorporating authentic materials doesn't need to be overly complicated and time consuming.
- Definitely will impact on my teaching of speaking skills.
- Fantastic! Really useful and interesting.
- Will help with my lesson planning and can use the strategies straightaway.
- Content very useful and adaptable.
- Very inspiring. Lots of fun ideas that can easily be applied in class.
- It has made me really think again about how I teach grammar and approach grammar teaching.
- For me this course has been amazing. The learning curve has been steep, but I have enjoyed the challenge it has brought.
- I have found the sessions to be inspiring and informative.

For more information or to book a place please contact Jennie Jones on 01922 721013 or
st-jones-j@qmhs.org.uk